1. I am not a God afar off. I am not a God afar off who is removed from the cares of his people. I am not a God afar off, unacquainted with the fears, the tears, the agony that is going on in my world; in my creation; the work of my hands; that which I spoke into existence, and came; molecules forming; life being. I love you.
2. I am not unacquainted with your grief, your agony, the things that cause you pain, yea, right, wrong, misinformed; for whatever reason, for all reasons and every reason. I am not ignorant or apathetic. I am omnipotent, omniscient; all-knowing, all-seeing, all-being.
3. I am there in you. I reside in you. I give you me. I gave you me, I am. You are I am. I have given you me. All that I am you are. All that I have I have given you.
4. "I am complete in him", you say. You say right. Grasp. Think on these things, and think it not strange my redundancy/repetition/reemphasis.

19. Into me see; I see into me the seed of Christ coming forth, maturing with God and man, thinking it not strange that God is in me, for I am the work of his hands. I love him. He loves me. We are one. I am one with my father. I am one with my God who is my father; my son in me; for I am I am, and that which is to behold is within me. That which is to behold, that which I behold, that which I hold, that which I carry, that which I am, is made of him, by him, for him, and unto him now I operate, and I reside in the fullness of who he is, and what he has given me.

I behold the lamb that was slain from the foundation of the world. I am him, with him; we played together; we did all things with the word of his mouth. I love you.
27. Give me more, and more will I make; tenderly/triumphantly/triunely; me/you/the father; our father; one altogether; omnipotent, omniscient, lovely, yea, of stone, not, crying out; the work of his hands; holy, holy, holy God Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in who all things is; then'd in me, the fullness, my glory, my God; forsaken not; I am the fullness.
